PRACTICE SCHEDULE

As you can see by the calendar below, we are running into QUITE a few practice conflicts the first couple of weeks in December. I am going to work to schedule make ups. I will finalize these options and post them on the website—as well as send out an email blast

Please make it a habit to READ this newsletter—I TRY to communicate as much as I know—when I know it....

If you are not receiving email notices—email me at coahkathy@sbcglobal.net and I will add you to the list.

Happy Thanksgiving—see you next week.
