Conditions of Employment

Nebraska Aquatics "Learn to Swim" sets high standards for its employees, and compliance with these standards is a condition of employment. Our program is designed to provide Nebraska Aquatics swimmers with employment in their busy schedule, while also providing a service to their team and community.

If you are offered a position with NA Learn-to-Swim program, you need to carefully consider what we would require of you before you accept. As an employee, you must meet the following standards:

- * Present an environment of professionalism
- * Arriving on time (at least 5 minutes before class is set to begin)
- * Maintaining a positive, enthusiastic attitude at all times
- * Treating coworkers with respect
- * Being honest and dedicated in your work
- * Using proper etiquette when speaking to parents, children and coworkers
- * Completing necessary training and certification requirements
- * Following LTS policies and procedures
- * Following directions
- * Smiling and making eye contact
- * Meeting standards of work quality
- * Maintaining a professional appearance
- * Swim trunks/suits stay tied and on hips, not sagging down
- * Swimsuit straps on shoulders, no bikinis (2 piece workout suits are permitted)

I hereby agree to comply with all the requirements listed and all Learn-to-Swim policies and procedures:
