COMMENTS

In what is considered so far the most exciting game of the tournament, Mexico won the bronze medal game in the female category by beating Brazil in Penalty Shootout. Both team came out with lots of drive and effort, scoring at will during the first quarter. Each team was able to capitalize on defensive lapses by the other team. Mexico did score on extra man while Brazil did the same on a penalty shot. After a 5-5 tie in the first quarter, both teams slowed down the tempo, been more careful in their shot selection and playing tough defense. Neither team was able to score from the post. Perimeter shots were been contested aggressively by both teams. The half ended with a 6-6 tie. The third quarter was all Mexico. They scored the first three goals of the quarter after a 40 minute delay due to lightning. At the end of the quarter Brazil was able to cut the lead with an extra man goal. At the 7:00 minute mark in the last quarter, Mexico was ahead by three goals. It was then when they started turning the ball over and Brazil was able to score on every turnover, tying the game at 11. On the first round of penalty shots, each team missed a shot. The second round saw Mexico score twice and Brazil missed once, giving Mexico the win. Guzman (#5) led all scorers with 8 goals for Mexico. Three players scored three goals for Brazil

In the female gold medal game, USA and Canada went to the wire in a very exciting game, with the US team coming out a winner by a 9-7 margin. USA started scoring their first two extra man situation, while Canada wasn't able to get their offense on gear. The second quarter had USA changing gears and scoring three goal on counter attacks while Canada was only able to score from the perimeter. The score at halftime had USA ahead in the score 7-1. The second half was all Canada. They started pounding the ball inside, getting some good looks from the perimeter which they were able to capitalize, USA's offense was good, but when it came to scoring on extra man they just couldn't score a goal. Canada went on a 4-0 run in that quarter, closing the gap by two goals. Fourth quarter was a see saw battle between both teams, neither one been able to capitalize on extra man. USA missed two golden opportunities in counter attacks, misses that Canada converted to put the game within reach. Canada had a golden opportunity to tie the game but USA goalkeeper and MVP Ritner was huge, stopping a penalty shot. With the game in hand, USA went on a counter attack and was able to score a goal to put away the game. Roemer (#10) led gold medal winner USA with three goals. Rachid (#4) and Ulas (#10) scored two goals apiece for silver winner Canada
