COMMENTS

The first game of the quarter finals for women had the team from Mexico and Trinidad and Tobago go head to head. From the first possession, Mexico came out playing aggressive defense and counter attacking every shot. They were able to score at most of their possessions, taking a commanding 8-0 lead. Mexico just kept playing har nose defense and precise counter attacks during the second quarter, increasing their lead to 15-1 by halftime. Trinidad never stopped playing hard, been able to slow down Mexico's offense during the third quarter and continued to move the ball to the post. They were able to get some extra man situations but Mexico was able to contain the attacks. During the fourth quarter, Mexico just kept attacking the cage at will, using their speed and aggressive style of play. Anderson (#7) led Mexico with 8 goals. They will play Canada in the semi-final round. Trinidad had three players scoring one goal. Their opponent in the next game will be Puerto Rico

COMMENTS

The women's second quarter final game was one that was highly contested for the whole game. Puerto Rico and Brazil were both at the top of their game during the first quarter. Both teams had their chances to score and played very strong defense, not allowing each other any easy goals. The first quarter ended in a 1-1 draw. The second quarter was all Brazil. They were able to score from center post and from two extra man situations while at the same time not letting Puerto Rico develop any consistent offensive attack. At halftime Brazil was ahead 5-1. Puerto Rico wasn't ready to give up and came out playing with more emotion. They scored from center post, from perimeter shots but weren't able to capitalize on extra man situations. Brazil was able to score from the post. The quarter ended with a 3-3 tie and Brazil ahead 8-4. The last quarter saw both teams taking chances at offense but not capitalizing on the other team's defensive lapses. Brazil just kept pounding the ball inside while Puerto Rico countered with lots of offensive picks to free up their top scorer Roman (#9). Brazil came out on top and will play USA during the semi-finals. They were lead in scoring by de Amaral (#10) with 4 goals. Puerto Rico will play for 5-6 position against Trinidad and Tobago. They were led by Roman (#9) with 5 goals
