COMMENTS

In a game that decided second place in Group A, Puerto Rico came out playing with passion at both ends of the field of play and won decisively 16-8. Puerto Rico was able to score from penalty, extra man, perimeter and center post in the first quarter, taking a 4-1 lead. That lead was short lived when lack of concentration in defense for Puerto Rico led to three quick goals for Colombia, tying the game t 4. Puerto Rico was able to regroup and scored three goals of their own, ending the half with a 7-4 lead. The third and decisive quarter was a copy from the first quarter. Puerto Rico just clogged up the middle in defense and moved the ball in the perimeter effectively in offense which led to three goals from all areas. That solid shooting continued during the fourth quarter when they were able to open an eight goal lead they would never relinquished, Puerto Rico, who play Mexico during tomorrow's session, was led by Martir (#5) with three goals. Three players for Colombia scored two goals apiece. They play Canada tomorrow.

COMMENTS

In a high scoring game, Argentina outlasted Trinidad and Tobago 23-15. This game had no consequence in the standings and both teams were playing at the beginning with not a lot of emotions. Both teams scored at will during the whole game. Argentina jumped early and often on Trinidad, scoring 12 goals in the first half. 4 goals by Martino (#7) and 3 goals by Camnasio (#9) and Provenzano (#10) were all that Argentina needed to gain a solid lead that they would never relinquished during the game. Daniel was the bright spot for Trinidad during the first half with three goals of his own. The second half had Trinidad coming back at every chance and able to penetrate Argentina's defense with ease. They were able to score 6 goals in the quarter to 4 for Argentina cutting the lead to three goals at the end of the third quarter. During the first three minutes of the last quarter, Argentina was able to pull away and get the game out of reach. They scored on their first five possessions, increasing their lead to 8 goals. Petrocelli (#2) and Provenzanno (#10) led Argentina with 6 goals. They will play Brazil during tomorrow's quarterfinal game. Trinidad has a bye.

Peru and Mexico played to a tie game, one that was played with positions 3-4 in the group up for grabs. Peru was able to score from extra man and from the center post while Mexico scored from perimeter shooting during the first quarter. After a 3-3 tie in the second quarter, both teams came out playing with lots of emotions, scoring from all positions of the field of play and from extra man situations. 9 goals were scored during the quarter, making it one of the most contested games of the tournament. After a 8-7 halftime score during the first half, scoring was hard to come. Both teams were plagued by turnovers and not been able to muster any consistent offense. The fourth quarter saw Peru mount a comeback from two goals down with less than two minutes to go and tie the game. Both teams had at least two good chances to win the game but weren't able to capitalize and score the winning goal. Mexico, who was led by Morales (#9) with three goals, will play Puerto Rico in the quarterfinal game. Peru will play USA, and for this game was led by Dancourt (#9) with 4 goals.

Brazil came out of the gate with too much energy for Canada and scored at will during the first quarter, putting the game out of hand with a 8-2 first quarter. Brazil showed an overall dominance at all facets of the game and scored at will during the first possessions of the game. During the second quarter, Brazil just kept pounding the ball inside and never let down in their offensive skills to increase their lead to 13-4 at halftime. With the game well in hand, Brazil just played conservative defense and well balanced offense, not making many turnovers and keeping their defensive intensity that has identified them during the whole tournament. This game was a statement one, letting all teams that the defending champions will be a team to be taken seriously. Canada was led by D'Souza with 5 goals. Pessin (#2) led Brazil with 5 goals. Canada will play Colombia and Brazil will do battle against Argentina during the quarterfinal games.
