The second match of the day was between perennial South American teams Argentina and Brazil. This game had great significance since Brazil had to win by more than nine goals to advance to the next round in first place. The first quarter was a very sluggish one for both teams. Argentina was able to score from 5 meters while Brazil capitalized two extra man and one counter attack goal. Second quarter was Brazil's all the way. Their defensive intensity was very good, not allowing any good scoring opportunity for Argentina. They were able to score from Argentina's turnovers and twice on extra man to increase their lead to 6-1 at halftime. Second half belong to Vergara (#7). He singlehandedly scored more goals in a half than his team in the first half. His sharpshooting from all angles had everyone's attention. Brazil made every concerted effort to put the ball in his hands and he was very effective from five meters out. With the win, Brazil now goes to the quarter finals against Barbados. Vergara was their leader with seven goals. Argentina was led by Lorenth (#9) with two goals. They will play Colombia with the winner going to the semi-final round and earning a spot at next year's World Championship

The last game of the afternoon was between Puerto Rico and USA. USA was able to draw first blood scoring on a penalty shot and on extra man situation. Not to be outdone, Puerto Rico came roaring back and scored two goals from the perimeter in the last two minutes of the quarter, tying the game at two. USA came out the second quarter with high intensity at both ends of the field of play. They were playing tough full court man to man, scoring from center forward and five meters in three occasions. Puerto Rico kept their composure and retaliated with two goals of their own. Two defensive lapses allowed USA to score three more goals to increase their halftime lead to 8-3. The last two quarters was one where both teams had good chances to score from extra man but were not able to do so. USA just kept playing hard-nosed defense, which allowed them to force turnovers and score breakaway goals. During that half, Puerto Rico was able to score two fantastic goals from six meters but both times USA came back and scored after either turnovers or good cross-pass shots. Puerto Rico was led by Ojeda (#2) and Andino (#5) with two goals. They will meet Canada in their quarter-final game. USA will play Peru tomorrow. They were led by Zaan (#2) who scored five goals.
