COMMENTS

Brazil and Cuba went to battle in the game that not only decided who would play Canada for the gold medal, but also who would qualify for the World Championship this summer. Cuba came out once again playing hard during the first two quarters. They were able to get a quick penalty goal to break the ice. They came right back to score from a perimeter shot to increase their lead 2-0. With two minutes left Cuba was able to get and capitalize on another penalty shot to close the first quarter with a 3-0 lead. Cuba's goalkeeper was on top of her game in the second quarter. She would stop shots from inside two meters, perimeter and extra man. Alba (#2) was able to score for Brazil with 5 minutes left in the second quarter cutting Cuba's lead to two goals. Cuba countered with a center forward shot to get back to a two-goal lead. Both teams exchanged goals, but Cuba was able to go to halftime with a five-goal lead. The third quarter was one where neither team was able to develop a consistent offensive attack. Cuba did increase their lead to 6 goals to begin the fourth quarter. Brazil, a team that never quits playing hard, came out strong in the fourth quarter scoring the first three goals of the quarter and cutting the lead to three goals. Cuba kept their poise and exchanged goals with Brazil for the rest of the game. Brazil was led by Roge (#11) with 4 goals. Cuba, who play Canada for the gold medal, was led by Carrasco (#5) and Bernal (#6) with 3 goals.
