COMMENTS

In a battle of South American teams, Argentina and Brazil went to do battle in the final game of the preliminary round. First quarter saw both teams with good chances to score, having Brazil score two goals to none for Argentina. The second quarter was all Brazil. They were able to score from the perimeter, from counter attacks and from centre forward, while at the same time shutting down ant Argentina offensive opportunity. The half ended with the score 7-0 in Brazil's favor. Argentina was able to score in the first minute of the third quarter on extra man. Brazil countered right back with a goal, stopping any Argentina's chance to create momentum. Midway through the quarter both teams exchanged extra man goals, which led to a 2-2 tie in the quarter and a 10-2 Brazil lead. The last quarter was a slow one in terms of offense until the last four minutes. Argentina was able to penetrate Brazil's defense with a goal from the perimeter. Brazil came roaring back and scored three goals to seal the game. Guimaraes (#11) was their leading scorer with four goals. His team will go against Canada in the first semi-final game. Argentina will go against USA in the second semi-final game. They were led in scoring by Carabante (#9) with two goals.
