- Electronically, when personal information is provided over by e-mail or through social media sites such as Facebook and Twitter; or
- By voluntarily disclosing personal information to a member, coach, volunteer, employee or board member.

Before deciding what form of consent is appropriate, SSO will consider the type of personal information it needs, the reason for its use, as well as the individual's reasonable expectations. SSO will generally seek express consent when the information is likely to be considered sensitive.

You may also give consent through an authorized representative, such as a parent or legal guardian. This is necessary, for example, in the case of athletes who are minors. For athletes aged 13, 14 and 15, consent will typically be obtained from the teenager, however a parent or legal guardian will also be asked to provide consent prior to the use or disclosure of any sensitive personal information.

Safeguards

SSO takes steps to ensure that coaches, volunteers, employees and board members are aware of the importance of maintaining the security and confidentiality of any personal information in our control. Reasonable physical and procedural safeguards have been put in place designed to protect this information.

Your choices

You may access and update your personal information at any time. You may also tell us at any time to stop using information about you by contacting the Executive Director (subject to legal and contractual restrictions and reasonable notice). We will comply with your request as quickly as possible but there may be certain uses of personal information that we may not be able to stop immediately.

How to reach us

The Executive Director is accountable for SSO's compliance with this Privacy Policy. If you have a general question about this Privacy Policy or would like to update your personal information or preferences, please contact the Executive Director.
