JEAN K. FREEMAN AQUATIC CENTER, UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
August 2-5, 2018
Meet Director Report

The 2018 Central Zone Meet in Minneapolis was executed with the incredible effort of over 98 Foxjets Swim Team families and other visiting team volunteers serving 1,700+ hours over the course of warm-up day and four days of completion. From 780 hours performed as Timers, Head Timers, and Sheet Runners; to 155 hours Selling Tickets; 215 hours in Hospitality; 260 hours as Admission Monitors and Safety Marshals; 120 hours ensuring Awards were executed and Results posted; and 180 hours between Floaters and the Meet Directors (not including pre-meet time preparation), resulted in a highly effective and organized championship meet.

As a team, we take pride in ensuring we present a professional, unified approach, thus all volunteers garnered “volunteer” shirts and were given specific job descriptions for their roles prior to arriving for their shift.

Eight LSCs participated from Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Oklahoma, Midwestern, South Dakota, North Dakota, and Minnesota bringing 835 athletes competing in 3,075 individual events and 266 relays with 53 coaches and a full deck of officials for each and every session.

Prior to the start of the meet, we held two conference calls with all LSCs participating, as well as Meet Referee, Admin, and Central Zones representation. There were four key email communications with thorough information and instructions for each LSC, as well as handouts of key information such as a site/seating map, credentials, complementary session passes, etc. at the Coaches/General Meeting the night before the meet.

Our team has an incredibly strong relationship with the leadership and staff of the facility. This resulted in a smooth-running meet behind the scenes, with issues related to timing system, speakers, scoreboard, etc. being addressed immediately and without interruption to the meet.

Outside of facility rental, the largest expense incurred was to provide hotel accommodations to officials who agreed to work all sessions. This unusual “perk” was provided to ensure the meet was amply staffed with officials and due to Futures being held in Rochester, MN the same weekend as Zones. In addition to providing hotel rooms, officials who volunteered a minimum of four sessions were provided a complementary officials shirt (in a handsome purple color) and an engraved name badge with the 2018 Central Zones (Minneapolis) logo.

Officials, coaches, and key volunteers were provided 12 catered meals in hospitality, the third highest expense of executing this meet. While we appreciate the highly positive comments on hospitality, we recognize and accept that individual dietary needs are not able to be accommodated.

Given the size of the facility, there was ample seating for athletes and spectators. Though team seating was assigned, it appears some LSCs preferred to use less than the bleacher space provided to them, giving some athletes the impression that space was tight.

Each LSC selected a specific “walk out” song for their team. The concept was a good one, however, it wasn’t communicated during each awards ceremony, thus some athletes and spectators thought the selection of music was too repetitive.

We provided space for each LSC to have an information table throughout the meet, including warm-up day. Separate vendors provided meet-specific apparel and swim equipment. According to both vendors, sales were very favorable and both were busy through the duration of the meet.

As the host, we endeavored to provide as much meet-specific information on our web page, including pre-event ticket sales, which was convenient and used by many patrons. Heat sheets, though provided on site, were posted, as well as results, on a daily basis. Information about the surrounding area, including parking, transportation options, and construction information, was also posted online.

The meet survey information contained many opinions and helpful, but sometimes conflicting comments. Athletes gave highest ratings to the facility and the competitive pool – which was evident in the 16 new records established during the meet; coaches ranked the city/site location as well as general facility highest; officials rated the number of available officials, deck space, and accessibility highest; while spectators rated seating, the level of competition, the facility, and location as the highest. In general, all groups of respondents gave lowest ratings to locker rooms, deck temperature, air quality, parking costs, and distance traveled.

We recognize that an area of concern was the price of participating in the meet – from admission costs for spectators and families, to hotels and parking. While parking is regulated by the University and as the host we have no ability to influence this, the fact that there is ample parking in such close proximity to the aquatic center, as well as mass transit, is actually quite convenient. Given the major metropolitan area, negotiated hotel costs were very reasonable, relative to other major events that occur in the Minneapolis area. However, we recognize that this is not something many swim families from out of state may understand. Also, in order to make this a meet that benefited the host team, admission rates were set to ensure that it was not a financial loss to the host. It would be our recommendation that the Central Zone consider some type of facility surcharge for those host teams whose facility rental charge is such that meet entry fees alone will not cover. In addition, communication to LSCs prior to a Zones event about other out-of-pocket costs will help to level-set expectations with families.

One other specific area of feedback that the Central Zone could do to help swimmers and families is to explain with greater clarity what constitutes a “timed final.” Specific to 11-12 and 13-14 where the top 8 fastest swimmers compete in the evening finals for specific events.

As a team, we are extremely proud to have hosted the 2018 Central Zone Championship swim meet in Minneapolis. While we have hosted many multi-day invitational and state championship meets, a meet of this caliber takes the effort of many. We are humbled by the support of our families, officials, coaches, parents, and the athletes themselves. It is for the swimmers that we do all that we do.

Sincerely,

Ann Watanabe and Megan Munoz
