

Joel Shinofield Bio

Joel Shinofield is the Executive Director of the College Swimming and Diving Coaches Association of America (CSCAA), the oldest collegiate coaches association in the United States.

Shinofield previously served as a collegiate swimming coach at the DI and DIII levels. He also has coached Club and High School, producing Olympic Trials, NCAA, National and Junior National qualifiers including 6 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners in 9 years as head coach at Washington and Lee University. While coaching, Shinofield served in governance roles at the conference, LSC and national level.

Before entering coaching full time, Shinofield worked in the private sector building partnerships between non-profits and major corporations to create solutions for long-term workforce development, education and other challenges facing cities. Shinofield facilitated several successful partnerships with General Mills, Wells Fargo, Cargill and Target to name a few.

Shinofield graduated with honors from Washington and Lee University with a B.A. in Biology and earned an M.A. from Hollins University.
