Ozark Swimming
STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES
ON ETHICAL BEHAVIOR AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Those who choose to serve Ozark Swimming, whether as volunteers or paid professionals, are held to a high standard of conduct. Those who serve must do so without personal gain in order to avoid any institutional loss or embarrassment and to behave in such a way that the organization's trust and public confidence are enhanced. It is important to avoid any real or perceived conflict of interest.

While no set of guidelines can completely define acceptable behavior, the principles that guide behavior in this area are disclosure of potential conflicts, non-participation in the decision making process where personal or family gain is a possibility, and a commitment to honor the confidentiality of organizational information. All conduct is founded on the individual's own sense of integrity. Any individual accepting the honor of serving Ozark Swimming must accept the burdens of public disclosure and public scrutiny.

In our complex society, the mix of volunteer work, business interests, governmental activity, and family relationships often creates potentially conflicting interests. What is required is disclosure of potential conflicting interests when they arise, and strict nonparticipation in any evaluation process relating to the matter in question.

The following seven items reflect specific expectations by Ozark Swimming of people signing this agreement. These items cannot and do not however completely define what is acceptable. They are intended rather as guidelines and not a precise road map to what is acceptable conduct. Each individual must find his or her own way within this guidance.

1. A good faith effort must be exercised to conduct the business of Ozark Swimming in observance of both the spirit and letter of applicable federal and state laws, Ozark Swimming and USA Swimming Policies, Procedures and By-Laws, and actions of the Ozark Swimming Board of Directors and various committees.
2. Ozark Swimming properties, services, opportunities, authority and influence are not to be used for private benefit.
3. All individuals who participate with Ozark Swimming will disclose the nature and extent of an actual or potential conflict of interest when it occurs in the evaluation of an issue and will avoid evaluating or voting on the matter involved. This includes the award of contracts, the purchase of goods and services, the award of contracts for professional services, and the allocation of Ozark Swimming resources for individual use.
4. Gifts, cash, travel, hotel accommodations, entertainment, or favors are neither to be given (except with full approval of the Board of Directors) nor received, except those of nominal value exchanged in the normal course of business. Gifts and favors of more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) value should not ordinarily be accepted. If circumstances render it awkward to refuse such a gift, the donor should be thanked and told the gift is being accepted on behalf of and will be delivered to Ozark Swimming.
5. Expenses incurred in the furtherance of Ozark Swimming business are to be reasonable, necessary and substantiated if twenty-five dollars or more.
6. It is expected that members of Ozark Swimming's leadership team will exhibit honesty, loyalty, candor and professional competence in their relationships with Ozark Swimming and with each other.
7. Each individual has the responsibility to keep proprietary and sensitive information confidential and to guard against its misuse.
