Mission: to provide a quality swim program capable of competing at all levels of the sport and promotes discipline, fitness, goal setting, and good sportsmanship through excellence

Coach's Corner

Please join us in welcoming Coach Todd to Northwest Georgia Aquatics! Coach Charles Todd is currently serving in an instructional support position at Calhoun High School and is assuming the role of aquatics director for the CAC and head coach of the Nitros. Coach Todd has extensive coaching and teaching experience, including a Level 5 ASCA coaching certification. He has coached championship programs at Dalton and systems throughout the state of Georgia and is recognized as a leader within the aquatics world. In addition, he has had numerous OT qualifiers including a finalist and NCAA finalist, two current national records, and many GA high school state champions. Other recent honors: 2013 and 2014 Selected to TEAM USA –Junior Coach (18 and under); 2013 GHSA State Champions Dalton High School. We are confident that Coach Todd will transition into the role with ease.

We appreciate your patience as we transition our communication outlets. From this point forward, communications will be done via email through the TeamUnify Platform at teamunify.com/ganga and REMIND via text.
