DISCOVER

The Discovery Phase encourages beginning to intermediate swimmers to experience the fun of the sport. Practice groups are geared toward teaching basic fundamentals, and instilling focus and pride for accomplishments.

DEVELOPMENTAL GROUPS (must be at least age 6)

White: Aimed at new swimmers, this group is focused on learning the basics of the four strokes.

Blue: For youth who can swim all strokes, Blue Group learns about proper training and finer stroke details. Dryland is introduced with a focus on foundational movement.

IMAGINE (must be at least age 9)

The Imagination Phase is intended to guide the mind of intermediate to advanced swimmers toward the future. They begin to learn and understand goal setting and the competitive process, helping them advance to the next level.

AGE GROUPS

Bronze: An introduction to training group, swimmers will learn to push past comfortable physical and mental boundaries, and to use advanced mechanics while training. Dryland is incorporated with recovery and self-awareness.

Gold: Focused on training and energy system development, athletes will work on fine tuning of mechanics while setting short- and long-term goals. Dryland becomes key in training.

PREPARE (must be at least age 14)

The Preparation Phase is about being competitive and reaching the next level. Athletes' focus is on what's necessary to achieve goals based on current ability.

SENIOR GROUPS

Senior: Shifting from skill development to competition training, aerobic endurance is stressed with suggestions on what to do outside of practice time.

Senior Elite: This group takes foundational blocks built over time and uses them to start reaching for the top. Athletes will be expected to attend every practice. Training varies heavily based on time of year, goals and body composition. Strength training becomes key, as does open dialogue about goals and what is going on within the workouts.
