

Meet Swimpodium 2020 Presenters

Caeleb Dressel: Fastest Man on the Planet! Two-time Gold Medalist. Seven-time World Champion Dressel currently holds the world record in the 100 meter butterfly (long course) and 50 meter freestyle (short course). Became the first human to break 18 seconds in the 50 free. Became the first human to break 40 seconds in the 100 free – swam a 39.90 at the NCAA Championships.

Cody Miller: 2016 Rio Gold & Bronze Medal, breaststroke record holder. In October of 2017, Cody Miller launched the Cody Miller Adventures vlog on his YouTube page, the first episode of which documented a normal day in the olympic champions life. Cody uses the vlog as a platform to talk with his audience about his training, what meets he is attending, his athletic and personal life away from the pool, and how he deals with problems and conflicts that may arise both in and out swimming.

Meet Swimposium 2020 Presenters

Missy Franklin: Four-time Olympic gold medalist and multiple world record-holder. Missy became a household name during the 2012 Olympic Games in London when she, became one of the most decorated athletes of the Games. She won gold in the 100 back, 200 back, 4x200 free relay and 4x100 medley relay, and won bronze in the 4x100-meter free relay. Missy's performance in the 200 backstroke broke the world record-- the 1st time for an American had won the event in 40 years.

Josh Davis, an Utah Swimposium favorite! At the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games, Josh won 3 gold medals. Josh returned to the Sydney in 2000 where he was elected Captain of the USA Men's Swim Team. He went on to break the American record 3X in 200 free and won two silver medals at the 2000 Sydney Games. He is the Men's & Women's head coach at Oklahoma Christian University and where he also spends time with his six children and wife.

Meet Swimpodium 2020 Presenters

Summer Sanders: Summer won four medals—including two golds—for Team USA at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona, making her the most decorated swimmer at the Games. Summer is the author of “Champions Are Raised, Not Born: How My Parents Made Me a Success,” and is the proud mom of two children. She is married to a fellow Olympian, Erik Schlopy.

Summer will talk with parents on how her parents gave her the drive to consistently give all she had, no matter what the challenge. She will also discuss how they helped her develop self-assurance and courage, and what her parents did right.

Summer is incredibly passionate about giving back and has been a part of her humanitarian love, Right To Play, for over 20 years and is on their US Board of Directors. She was also a strong supporter of the USA Swimming Foundation’s mission of teaching every kid in the USA to swim.

Meet Swimpodium 2020 Presenters

Coley Stickels: Head Coach of the University of Alabama. Stickles has a history of producing some of the best sprinters in history, including Abbey Weitzeil and Santo Condorelli. He discusses his approach and how he uses dryland training. He will also discuss his coaching philosophy

Mariusz Podkościelny: Marisuz is a former freestyle swimmer from Poland, who, twice competed at the Summer Olympics: in 1988 and 1992. Since 2003, he was a swimming coach for the University of Miami. He is currently the assistant coach for the swim team and teaching history at Pine Crest School in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.