

Please support the Hershey High School Swimming & Diving team

The Hershey High School's Swimming & Diving team has a proud legacy of success! They are the most accomplished swimming and diving program in the Mid-Penn Conference. This year's team is a dedicated group of young men and women from our community.

Please consider supporting us with an advertisement, while marketing your business!

- ~There will be 3 exclusive program spots including the back cover, the inside back cover, and the inside front cover;
- ~Your business will be featured on a banner placed on deck at the Hershey Recreation Center throughout the entire season and beyond, seen daily by a high volume of spectators, Rec Center members, home and visiting teams, their families and friends, lap swimmers, parties, employees, and groups for at least 6 months; AND
- ~Your business will be prominently displayed on the team shirts worn at every home and away meet by all athletes and coaches. With our team pride, the shirt will be worn for many years, keeping your business constantly visible!
- ~Every advertisement will be in color regardless of size in our free program.

Your donation will be used for team clothing, team bags, MPC dinner, senior and coaches' gifts, the year-end banquet, team meals, a motivational speaker, group experiences, and memory books for each athlete.

Training for the 2017-18 season has begun, and the swimmers and divers look strong. They are motivated to keep their winning tradition alive while repeating the successes of past years. As you know, it takes a tremendous commitment by the swimmers, divers, parents, and coaching staff to produce such a high caliber team. Thank you again for your support, we couldn't do it without YOU!
