Expectations:

All swimmers, coaches and chaperones are traveling as a TEAM and REPRESENTING the Waves program.

All members of the group will:

- Be respectful of others in their room.
- Keep your room clean and organized.
- Be on time to all departures, breakfast and lights out/bedtimes.
- Be quiet and respectful of other guests at the hotel, restaurants and aquatic center.
- No swimmers of opposite sex in rooms.
- Coaches and chaperones may enter swimmers' rooms provided swimmers are dressed.
- Swimmers who violate these expectations will be disciplined by the head coach and could include scratching from events and being sent home at the cost of the parents.

Medical Forms:

- All traveling swimmers MUST turn in a medical release form INCLUDING a copy of your insurance card (attached below)
- Only coaches and chaperones will have access to the information. All forms will be shredded after the trip.

Food allergies/dietary restrictions/preferences:

- If your swimmer has any food allergies, please list them on the medical forms.
- I will send out our Google Form for Circle City Meal options once we have it finalized.
  - Please note, if your swimmer does not like any of the variety of meal options offered, they will need to either pack an alternative meal option or the parent will need to arrange for food pickup/delivery/payment with team order.

Cost:

- Swimmers will share in the cost of travel (bus), lodging (2 hotel night + ½ late Sunday checkout) and food.
- Coach Josh will keep track of costs and invoice parent accounts after the meet. Entry fees are billed separately. Expect around $315-$330. Last year was $359 and I am trying to cut down cost.
