Latest Updates and Happenings within the Club!!

SHORT COURSE SEASON!!

Welcome back to the pool! We are so excited to get the Short Course Season started!

Note from the Board of Directors:

As we move forward in our search for a new head coach, we welcome all suggestions, feedback and questions from membership.

We will keep an open line of communication as we move forward in our search for a coach.

Thank you to those who have reached out to be part of the hiring committee.

TIGERSHARK GIRLS MEETS

Come and support the Hutch Tigershark girls!

Home meets for October are as follows:

Thursday, October 7 th	6:00 PM Start
Thursday, October 14 th	6:00 PM Start

Spectators are currently allowed for meets. This may change as the season progresses.

High Tides will not have practice the nights of home meets, per usual procedure.

WELCOME!

We are happy to welcome assistant coach Lyndsey Grand on deck!

Lyndsey is a former Hutchinson Tigershark swimmer and also worked as a lifeguard at the waterpark this past summer. She is currently an ESL teacher for the Lester Prairie school district.

"Pain, tolerance, endurance-when it comes down to that point, there's always something left. You just have to find it." ~ Ryan Lochte.

COACHES CORNER

Stay tuned for a list of swim meets the club will be attending.

Welcome to all our new swimmers! We are so happy you joined the club! And welcome back to returning swimmers as well! Let's start this season strong. #rolltides

THANK YOU!

A big THANK YOU to all who participated in the First Annual Jerry Carlson Memorial Golf Outing!

Thank you to our participants, sponsors and everyone who helped make it a successful tournament.

We made a net profit of $5890!
Of that profit, 25% will be donated back to the Jerry Carlson Scholarship Fund!

We looked forward to growing this fundraiser in upcoming years!

TEAM TID-BITS!

 Team Store will be open late September. Watch your email for information and links to order.

 Thank you to all who participated in the mum fundraiser!

 Swim-A-Thon is in the works for January 2022. More info to follow as it becomes available.

OLYMPIC RECAP – BY USA SWIMMING

- The U.S.' 30 medals were comprised of 11 gold, 10 silver and nine bronze. The full list of individual medalists can be found here.
- This marks the fourth-consecutive Olympics where U.S. swimmers have won 30+ total medals.
- This marks the eighth-consecutive Olympics where U.S. swimmers have won 10+ gold medals.
- Swimming dominated the overall U.S. medal table, accounting for 27% of all Team USA medals in Tokyo. It was the most medals of any U.S. team this year, which is the seventh Olympics in a row that swimming has earned the most medals for Team USA.
- U.S. medaled in 30 of 67 maximum chances in swimming, giving the team a 45% medal rate. Other than Australia, who had a 31% medal rate, no other nation had more than a 12% medal rate.
- Going into Tokyo, there were 11 teenagers on the U.S. roster, nine of whom left Tokyo with medals.
- Going into Tokyo, there were 15 members of the U.S. roster who had never competed in a senior-level, long course international competition. Twelve of those 15 earned medals.
- There were 30 swims in Tokyo by U.S. athletes that landed inside the top-25 performances in history.
- Sixteen Americans moved into the top-5 list (or, if they were already inside the top-5, they moved to a higher rank) of fastest Americans ever due to their swims in Tokyo.
- There were seven individual events where two U.S. athletes stood the podium – no other country had more than two events where multiple representatives medaled.
