

Wasn't it just a few months ago that we produced the first Newsletter of the Swim Year (or so it seems)! Summer is here (already), and a lot of us are wallowing in our favorite swimmin' hole. Where ever that may be for you, we wish you a safe and happy summer filled with many hours enjoying your favorite place to swim---

The Chairman Sez...

Summer is officially here, and we are finally wrapping up the Short Course Yards season of swimming. Our Association was well represented at YMCA Nationals, our Zone Championships, and The National Senior Games. Congratulations to all !!! If you think that there's not a lot going on during the summer, think again. Long course and open water swimming is in full swing.

There are several Long Course Meets in our area this year. Terrapin Masters is holding an 800/1500 Meet on July 10. DCRP is holding their Annual LC Meet on July 24th. On August 6th, our Association along with Maryland Masters, is sponsoring a Long Course Meet at UMBC.

August 27-28, the Colonies Zone is holding LC Championships at George Mason University. Oh, and not to forget LC Nationals at Mission Viejo Ca August 11-15. For info, please go to our web site, or the USMS web site and it will link you to the entries. There are also numerous open water swims in our surrounding area. The USMS website has several links that you can use to get more information.

After the meet on August 6, our Association will hold a brief meeting to get ideas to help plan the upcoming year. To be discussed: the Swim Series Meets, our Association Swimmer of the Year Award, and ways to improve our Association's communications. We will have another meeting in late September to finalize plans for the upcoming year. If you have any ideas, suggestions, or complaints please let us know. If you can't attend, and have some ideas you would like to see implemented, please call or e-mail me with them. Here is my contact information: Phone (W) 410-

715-7624 e-mail pdevanny@fountainheadtitle.com.

I would like to thank everyone who has helped during the past year with the Newsletter, Top Ten, Registrar, Swim Series Meets, Sanctions and the rest of the Board. We have had to overcome a lot of obstacles: software glitches, computer failures, timing systems not being available, but we still made it through. So thank you, Ruth, Christine, Mike, Ray, Karen, Mark, Caroline, Nancy, Kay, Steve, Rand, Susie, Pat, Bob, Bonnie, Jim, Kathy, and Jill. If I forgot anyone, I apologize, and I'll recognize you next Newsletter.

And finally, it may seem like a long way off but Worlds Master Championships are coming to Stanford in August 2006. The two week competition begins on August 3 with the opening ceremonies and concludes on August 17. The competition includes swimming, diving, water polo, open water swimming and synchronized swimming. More details will be available in August and September at the USMS web site. Now is the time to start planning for this Meet. Please talk it up with your teammates. It would be fantastic to have a large group from our Association participate. Have a great summer!

Patty

Y Nationals

Maryland LMSC members, Dr. Jack Iliff and Marti Betz, erased the 1986 100 yd. Men's Individual Medley and 1991 50 yd. Women's Backstroke records at the "YMCA MASTERS" NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP MEET in April at the Natatorium of the Purdue and I.U. campus in Indianapolis. The relay team of Head Coach Nancy Brown, Vonda Nohinek, Marge Pearsall-Groenwald, and Daryl Platt swam to a 1st place victory to establish a "bench-mark" for the 400 yd. Freestyle Relay which was added to the Meet events this year.

The Anne Arundel County YMCA team members totaled 53 (ranging in ages 25-92) vs the "home team" Jordan "Y" Indianapolis which numbered 123. Maryland Masters took 2nd overall team place with their "small men's team" placing 1st. Teams from across the country and Canada gathered at the "Natatorium" for the four day event from the West Coast to the East, representing seventy-five "Y's" throughout the U.S.

The "distance" events, i.e. the 1650 yds. and 1000yds. launched the National Meet 4/20/2005 which culminated with the 200 yd. Individual Medley .

MD Masters Team members who won gold medals include:

Marty Betz, Nancy Brown, John Collings, Raymond Edelhoff, Alexander Eremchuk, Francis Haywood, Jack Iliff, Sally Iliff, Christine Jorgensen, Phil Kerr, Yu-Jin Lee, Vanda Nohinek, Lynn Nye, Marjorie Pearsall, Daryl Platt, Denzil Pritchard, Ruth Reiner, Marge Rudie, and Gary Trimble.

And National Senior Games

Senior Swimmers from Maryland LMSC took a total of 31 medals at the National Senior Games in Pittsburgh, June 13-18, including 13 broken records. Nancy Brown broke the current record in all 6 of her events; Doris Russell broke 3 records and Marti Betz and Ann Lallande broke 2 each. Following are the medals won. Events in bold are records.

Betz, Martha	55-59	1st: 50 Bk, 100 Bk , 200, Bk., 100 IM, 200 IM
Brown, Nancy	65-69	1st: 50 Bk, 100 Bk, 200 Bk, 200 Fr, 500 Fr, 200 IM
Jorgensen, Christine	60-64	1st: 50 Br, 100 Br, 200 Br, 2 nd : 200 IM, 3 rd : 200 Bk
Kerr, Philip	70-74	3 rd : 200 Fr, 500 Fr
Lallande, Ann	55-59	1st: 50 Fl, 100 Fl , 100 Fr, 200 Fr, 2 nd : 100 Bk, 500 Fr
Libby, Joan	60-64	3 rd : 500 Fr
Russell, Doris	85-89	1st: 50 Fl , 100 fl, 50 Fr, 100 Fr , 200 Fr, 500 Fr

Another 31 ribbons were won for 4-8 place finishes. In addition to the swimmers above, ribbons were won by Burt Bronk, John Collings, George Franzak, Marjorie Pearsall, Daryl Platt, Rand Vaillancourt, and Margaret Whiteside.

A golden age for gold medals

Doris Russell has been there and done that when it comes to being interviewed about her swimming. Reporters started calling in the 1940s, when she and her husband were doing aquatics shows at Baltimore-area country clubs, as well as at the swank Pennsylvania golf resort then owned by Fred Waring, the famed singing troupe leader and radio star.

Something's made the papers every five or 10 years. There was one longer break while she and husband, Jim, best known as a diver, raised eight children, but the Russell kids made swimming news now and then, too.

So, here's what might be called a five-year update on Russell, the Ellicott City grandmother who was 80 the last time her swimming medals caught a reporter's eye.

Actually, little has changed for her competitively. She still swims year-round, mostly at the Columbia Swim Center in Wilde Lake village. She still competes in periodic age-group meets, still adds to her medal collection, still holds, at minimum, the national record for the 50-yard freestyle in her age group.

Of course, now she is 85 and the number of swimmers in her age group has shrunk a bit. She prefers to say there still are competitors in her age group, at least for most of her events. And there's hope, because in what's called masters swimming, a few swimmers in their 90s and even 100-plus still compete.

Just after her 85th birthday last month, Russell entered six events at the annual U.S. Masters Swimming Short Course Championships in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and brought home six more gold medals that dangle on ribbons from a tall piece of furniture in her living room.

Next week, assuming an ankle she accidentally bloodied on a church kneeler last Saturday heals fast enough, Russell will be traveling again, this time to the National Senior Games in Pittsburgh, a Senior Olympics event expected to draw about 10,000 competitors in many sports, including swimming.

"I think things will be a little more competitive there," she said.

"I can swim better these days than I can walk," she said. "That's the truth, because my knees are bad. But I love to swim. Nothing's better for you. I'm telling you, swimming is the fountain of youth."

Her attitude is contagious.

"Oh, man, she's wonderful," said Nancy Brown, whom Russell refers to as her coach, although Brown, a Pasadena resident, head of the Maryland Masters Swim Team and a frequent winner in her age group in masters and Senior Olympics competition, said that's not really so.

"Doris goes to meets with us, but she trains on her own," Brown said. "She's incredible - testimony to what people can do if they stay active as they get older."

Her training regimen has changed little since Russell deecided to get back into competitive swimming after her husband's death in 1983.

Russell goes to the Columbia facility at least three times a week ("four, if I can do it") and swims three-quarters of a mile - stroking end-to-end in the 25-yard pool about 50 times.

"It's intervals," she said, which means swimming some laps at a relatively relaxed pace but mixing in "hard" laps that push her capabilities. Those hard laps include freestyle and the butterfly, an exhausting stroke she did not attempt until she was 70.

This zeal for swimming began when Russell was a teenager in the Forest Park section of West Baltimore. It was bolstered when she and Jimmy Russell met during a college meet in Washington and continued with countless hours at the Meadowbrook pool in Baltimore's Mount Washington neighborhood.

The Russells, who in the early 1960s operated an athletic club near the old Western High School in Baltimore that the Baltimore Colts used as their fitness-training facility, were also instrumental in getting the North St. John's Swim and Tennis Club started in Ellicott City, not far from where she has lived for 39 years.

The Russells' five daughters and three sons all swim, as do all seven grandchildren.

"I got them in the water early," she said.

That has proven to be a great gift, said the youngest daughter, Kim Collins, also an Ellicott City resident who with husband Greg is a triathlete.

This weekend, Kim Collins, who was the first female lifeguard at Ocean City, hopes to complete the annual race across the Chesapeake Bay, starting at Sandy Point State Park. She sees it as a tribute to her mother, who entered the 1991 race but, like most other swimmers that year, got caught in a dangerous, overwhelming current and had to be pulled from the water.

Russell said she would still like to try the bay swim but thinks at her age it might be too much. Pool swimming, though - that's a different story.

"There are times now when I just don't feel like it, but I go to the pool anyway," she said, "and once I get into the water, it makes me feel 20 years younger." At 85, Doris Russell won six gold medals last month at the U.S. Masters Swimming Short Course Championship.

At 85, swimmer Doris Russell is still beating the competition at every turn.

Editor's Note: Doris Russell, who was highlighted in the last issue of "Swimmer" magazine for her "fly feats", also broke records in the recent National Sr. Games held in Pittsburgh. Keep chuggin', Doris

The Dorothy "Dot" Donnelly Colonies Zone Service Award

The purpose of this award is to recognize and honor swimmers in the Colonies Zone who exemplify the spirit of Dorothy Donnelly in their love of participation in the sport and their work to further Masters Swimming in their LMSC.

One person each year will receive this award. Any Masters swimmer in the Colonies Zone may nominate someone from the Zone. Nominators fill out a form giving details of the nominee's work. (Click here for the form.) A selection committee, appointed by the Zone Representative (or by the Zone members at the annual Zone meeting), will determine the award winner. The award will be presented at the Zone meeting at the USMS Convention (or at the Zone Championship Meet).

Ideally, they would like a nomination from each LMSC. This is a way that LMSCs and the Colonies Zone can thank people for their dedication to Masters Swimming.

The nomination form can be found on the Colonies Zone web site at: http://www.colonieszone.org/dot_donnelly/nominationform.htm. Nominations are due by August 1, 2005.

They are also looking for folks to help review the nominations as an "award committee." Last year they had someone from almost every LMSC in the Zone. The duties are to review all the nominations and rank them in the order you feel they should be for receiving the award.

For more information, contact Debbie Morrin-Nordlund at (301)405-6938 or mees@mees.umd.edu.
