

May 2014 Scholastic All America report

Hey - calling all smart and fast high school swimmers. You may qualify for the 2013-2014 Scholastic All America team.

Swimmers must have a 3.5 or higher grade point average for the current year, achieved a qualifying time within the qualifying time period, and must have just completed their sophomore, junior or senior year in high school. Online applications for the 2013-2014 Scholastic All America team will be available online only at the USA Swimming website from June 1 to August 15, 2014.

Applicants must have swum a time equal to a Junior National 2011 bonus time in any event during the SAA qualifying period (July 1, 2013 – August 15, 2014) with qualifying times in SWIMS – list of times are posted on the USA Swimming website and in the USA-S Rule Book.

Qualifying times for the applicant will be validated through the Times on the USA Swimming website (time MUST be in SWIMS). The applicant must have been a member at the time of the swim and a current member when applying for the 2013-14 SAA team.

The applicant will be required to have a transcript for the COMPLETE academic year available for uploading to the application. (pdf files preferred)

Swimmers must have a 3.5 or higher gpa for the current year. Honors, Advanced Placement, and International Baccalaureate courses will earn one extra grade point. Courses such as PE, health, and other non-core courses do not count towards the gpa calculation.

Disabled swimmers and open water swimmers may also qualify for the team. Qualifying meets include swimming at one of the named Disability or the National Open Water Championships.

*2013 IPC World Championships, August 12-18, 2013

*Can Am Championships, Canada, December 13-15, 2013

*Deaf International SC Championships, January 14-18, 2014

*Can Am Championships, Miami, FL, March 27-29, 2014

*Open Water National Championships, Castaic Lake, CA, June 13, 15, 2014

Susan Huceby is the Women's tabulator for the Western Zone.

Please address all questions regarding the Scholastic All America application process to Betty Kooy, blkooy@gmail.com.