Snapshot

With significant achievements both in the water and on deck, Korey has earned national recognition in the swimming community. His passion and aptitude for the sport were evident at an early age while becoming a record holder at his high school. While swimming for both his HS and the Western Kansas Swim Club, Korey's work ethic also earned him spots on both the All Conference and All State Teams.

After HS continued to earn recognition in the sport as a member of the Butler University Bulldogs' Swim Team. While there, Korey earned the respect of both his teammates and coaches. His efforts and dedication earned him a spot as team captain, a university record holder, and recipient of the swim team's "Coaches Award". It was this very character which ultimately earned him the "Butler Mental Attitude Award" at the University's All Sports Banquet.

Korey's love for the sport did not fade upon graduation and he soon found himself on deck once again, this time as a coach. This was a natural transition for him as, while attending Butler, he would spend summers providing coaching assistance to organizations like his high school. Korey quickly found his natural talent for coaching opening opportunities on both the collegiate as well as club levels.

Most recently, as the coach of a year round age group club, he had nationally recognized success when he had 5 swimmers achieve Olympic Trial Qualifying times. Four of these five were 15 years old or younger with one being only 14 years old! That level of success was not a coincidence as he has clearly shown with his swimmers, both boys and girls, also becoming champions at the Jr. National Cup and Elite Showcase Classic meets across multiple years.

Korey his now brought his talent to Enfinity as the Director and Coachoftheclub'sGreensboroclub.Wealllookforwardtoseeing what new heights both he and his athletes will achieve next.
