

Hello Swimmers and Parents,

This email pertains to the official GCY vs YCF Duel in the Pool Swim Meet, the Cocoa Beach Itinerary, the Cocoa Beach Rooming List AND to announce the annual Cocoa Beach Meeting! If you missed earlier emails, you may see it AND all details on the Cocoa Beach Event Page - links below take you straight where you need to go!

GCY vs YCF Duel in the Pool Swim Meet: It's this Saturday, entries were easy as ALL kids swim ALL events, here are the details:

Cocoa Beach Most Updated Itinerary: We will update this constantly, and it has been updated significantly since last posting, click below for the most up-to-date itinerary!

Cocoa Beach Rooming List: This is always difficult to do and do fairly, but we have posted the Cocoa Beach Rooming List along with all documents on the event page. Please remember we are primarily only sleeping in the rooms, so it is actually better sometimes if you do not know people as well in your room or talk to them as much, but we did honor requests as best we could. We will have frequent room checks, and only boys can go in boys rooms and girls in girls rooms, no exceptions.

Cocoa Beach Meeting: Because the trip has become so popular and there is a lot of information out there already, we never felt the need for an "interest" type meeting. We are however, going to have a brief meeting before we leave just detailing the trip, why we take it, purposes and goals, that kind of thing! It will be short and sweet; we'll take a 15-minute break during bag checks and loading, then get right back to business in getting ready for the trip!

We have tried to double-check all items, but if you see any errors/mistakes/anyone left out, please let me know ASAP so we can correct. Thanks everyone!
