

Syracuse Chargers Parent Code of Conduct

As a parent my major responsibilities are:

- To ensure my child's prompt attendance at practice.
- To come to meets and be supportive of my child through positive actions and words.
- To serve as a positive role model for all swimmers.
- To serve as a positive representative of the Syracuse Chargers organization.
- To show good sportsmanship at all times toward coaches, officials, opponents, and teammates.
- To let my child establish his or her own goals and encourage them to make their own progress toward them.
- To let the coach be the coach and not confuse my child with extraneous input.
- To encourage my child to make his/her best effort at all times.

It would be appreciated if Parents would abide by the following at all times:

- Refrain from talking to/asking questions of the coaching staff during practice time unless it is extremely urgent or an emergency.
- Questions can be asked before or after practice. Comments or concerns during other times, please contact the coaches at appropriate times during the week. SYCH strives to answer e-mails within 48 hours. Calls should be made between 9am and 4 pm weekdays.
- Refrain from using inappropriate language in the presence of any swimmers.
- Remain positive/supportive of the policies and actions of SYCH, particularly in public forums.
- Monitor all social media postings of your children.

At Meets:

- As per USA Swimming Regulations parents are not allowed on the deck.

*When your swimmer is participating on another team as a representative of the Syracuse Chargers (e.g. Zone Team, ESG Team, etc.):

- Parents will abide by the rules and regulations set forth by the said team.
- If specified, parents will relinquish access to their athlete during competition as set forth by the said team's coaching staff.
