

Jeff Arnold

Jeff coached high school diving in Ohio from 1971-2011. In those 40 years of coaching, Jeff qualified at least one diver to State competition each year from 1972-2011. Jeff coached eight state champions, eight runner-ups, and numerous state finalists. During Jeff's tenure as a diving coach, he had 49 divers earn All-American honors.

In addition to coaching high school athletes, Jeff has an impressive resume coaching at the age group, collegiate and national levels. Jeff has coached two age group National Champions among numerous finalists, 12 collegiate All-Americans, one Senior National Champion, and five members of the USA National team. Jeff also coached two Olympic Qualifiers, three Olympic Trial Qualifiers and a qualifier to the World Diving Championships in Moscow in 2002.

Jeff was a USA National Team Coach from 1996-2002. In that time, he was the US Diving National Team Coach in International Competitions in Edinburgh, Scotland and Madrid, Spain.

In addition to coaching, Jeff has been married to his wife, Donna for 39 years and has three children; Jaime, Rachel and Trisha. Jeff is a lifetime member of USA diving and served on the Lake Erie Local Diving Committee for 30 years. He served as Lake Erie Diving President, and is a diving consultant for the Northeast Ohio Swimming Coaches and Officials Association.
