Head Coach

Kevin Nolan kevin.nolan@peachwoodpirates.com

Coach Nolan was recently selected as 2017-18 New Jersey Coach of the Year for Swimming and Diving by the National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) after being nominated for the award by the NJSIAA, the state's governing body for high school athletics. Coach Nolan has served as the Coach of Gloucester Catholic's Boys and Girls Swim teams for 32 years. He recently earned career win No. 400, and in 2017-18 helped his Lady Rams' team to a state semifinal appearance. His teams have captured numerous team and individual championships in league, sectional and state competition during his lengthy tenure. Coach Nolan has guided generations of talented swimmers who have gone on to successful collegiate and professional careers. He has been selected as Coach of the Year by numerous organizations in his career, including the South Jersey Times and the NJSIAA. Coach Nolan graduated from Gloucester Catholic High School in 1978 and Glassboro State College in 1983. In addition to heading up the Gloucester Catholic High School swim team he has also previously coached in the summer at Gloucester City, Peachwood and Green-fields Swim Clubs.

Assistant Coach

Emma Billings
emma.billings@peachwoodpirates.com

Emma swam for the Gloucester Stingrays growing up and is currently swimming at East Stroudsburg University. During her swim career, she was a member of the Greater Philadelphia Aquatic Club and Tide Water Aquatics Club and also a captain for Gloucester Catholic's swim team. She is currently studying special education and middle level education at East Stroudsburg University while also lifeguarding and teaching swim lessons there. Emma is excited for the season and looks forward to working with every swimmer!

Assistant Coach

Andrew Stetser

andrew.stetser@peachwoodpirates.com

Andrew was a long-time swimmer for the Gibbstown Gators and four-year varsity swimmer at Gloucester Catholic. He has been a lifeguard at Gibbstown for four years. He is a sophomore at Mount St. Mary's University where he is major in secondary education and history.

Assistant Coach

Abigail Riddell
