

STEAMBOAT SWIM TEAM

Harassment, Bullying, and Hazing Policy

It is the policy of Steamboat Springs Swim Team to provide an environment free from harassment, bullying and hazing. As a team, we are committed to protecting our athletes from any form of physical or verbal abuse.

Harassment

Harassment includes any unwelcome verbal or physical conduct, contact or communication that is motivated by or related to individual characteristics such as race, color, national origin, gender, economic status, disability, religion, religious affiliation, or sexual orientation and that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Although harassment that creates a hostile environment may take many forms, some examples include: name calling and other derogatory comments, jokes, gestures or looks, posting or distribution of derogatory pictures, notes or graffiti, blocking, pushing, hitting or other forms of physical aggression.

Bullying

Bullying includes aggressive, negative physical or verbal conduct by one athlete toward another who reasonably perceives the conduct to be intimidating. Bullying most often will occur when an athlete asserts or attempts to assert physical or psychological power over, or is cruel to, another athlete who is perceived to be weaker. Such behavior may include but is not limited to: pushing, hitting, threatening, name-calling and other physical or verbal conduct of a belittling or browbeating nature.

Hazing

Hazing is an act that subjects an athlete to physical or verbal harassment, mental or physical discomfort, intimidation, embarrassment, ridicule, or demeaning activity committed by an individual athlete or group of athletes for the purpose of initiation, maintaining membership, or holding office in any organization, club, or athletic team.
