From The Commerical Appeal

"Senior David Wray and junior Ethan King, one of next year's recruiting prizes from the area each had two individual wins."

"King, who is looking at the service academies, won the 50 free (21.8) and 100 backstroke (51.6) for MHEA. David Wray, going to Ouachita Baptist with sister Karen, took gold in the 50 back (25.24) and 100 free (48.26). They teamed with Abel Kim and Jacob Kelsoe to set a county mark in the boys 200 medley (1:37.47), and with Kelsoe and Blake Franklin to lower the bar in the 200 free relay (1:28.51)."

Congratulations to all Memphis Thunder swimmers who participated in the Middle School and High School Championship swim meets. We're proud of you!

If we inadvertently left out any swimmers email us so we might correct the report.
