COMMENTS

A new era starts for Canada Water Polo and by the way they played it was a definite solid start With a new coach, a combination of the old guys and the new ones Canada played a very tight and strong defense during four quarters. This defense helped Canada develop a strong offensive attack based on counters from turnovers. Trinidad wasn't able to match man for man with Canada's strength but that didn't mean that they were going to stop playing. Trinidad's young guns played their hearts out for four quarters which ill helped them continue to improve day by day in this tournament. Canada was led by Blanchard (#7) with 7 goals. They will play a tough Argentina team. Trinidad will do battle against Brazil in the second day of competition.
