COMMENTS

It what was supposed to be one of the most exciting game of the tournament, Brazil took control during the third quarter and was able to beat Canada and qualify for the 2019 World Championship. During the first quarter Brazil was able to capitalize on their extra man opportunities (3-3) while Canada was only to score once (1-5). The second quarter was even all they way, with both teams missing opportunities on extra man and perimeter shots. The third quarter was all Brazil. They capitalized on two extra man chances and two perimeter shots. Canada just couldn't get a clear shot and had too many turnovers that Brazil capitalized. Fourth quarter had both teams scoring on either penalty shots or extra man opportunities. Every time Canada scored, Brazil came back and scored a goal of their own. With the win, Brazil moves to the gold medal game against United States. Vergaga (#7) was their leading scorer. Canada will play Argentina for the bronze medal. They were led in scoring by Diggle (#2) with two goals.
