Rules

The diving program will be carried out according to the rules and exceptions of FINA for Age Groups (FINA Diving Rules available at fina.org).

All the competitions will be final. In case there are more than twelve (12) competitors in a determined event, the dives with a limit in the degree of difficulty will be carried out in a session separate to the one of dives without degree of difficulty limit.

The FINA age group rules will be applied to the "A", "B" and "C" groups without exceptions. For the participants in the "D" group, the following rules will apply:

Boys and Girls Group D 3 metre springboard and 5 metre platform

The competition shall comprise six (6) different dives: four dives, voluntarily selected from four different groups with a total degree of difficulty not higher than 7.6 and two dives without degree of difficulty limit from two different groups.

Boys and Girls Group D 1 metre springboard

The competition shall comprise of six (6) different dives: four dives, voluntarily selected from four different groups with a total degree of difficulty not higher than 7.0 and two dives without degree of difficulty limit from two different groups.

Anti-Doping

During the competition, anti-doping control tests may be conducted, according to the control rules established by FINA.

Protests

Protests will be resolved under FINA Rule GR 9.2.

Protests must be submitted to the Chief Referee in writing by the team leader, with a deposit of US$100, within 30 minutes following the conclusion of the respective event.

All protests will be considered by the Chief Referee.

The commission (made up of the following persons present at the respective event [insert applicable roles]) will consider appeals against decisions by the Chief Referee and give recommendations to the jury of appeal, whose decision will be final.

Jury of Appeal

The Jury of Appeal shall be composed of the UANA Executive Committee Members, any UANA Honorary Members present at the Championships, and if in attendance, the FINA delegate to the event with the UANA President or in her absence a Vice President, as Chair. Each member shall have one vote, except as provided hereunder, and in case of equality of voting, the Chair has a casting vote. Jury members may attend and participate in the appeal by way of video conference where feasible.

A jury member is allowed to speak, but not to vote, on a case in which the interest of his own Federation is a party. A jury member having acted as an official in the competition under appeal is allowed to speak but not vote. In case of urgency, the jury may vote on a matter even if it has not been possible to call all the members. The decision of the jury is final.

In case of urgency, the jury may vote on a matter even if it has not been possible to contact all members.

The decision of the jury will be final.
