RE: RUSADA to Cornel

Dear John,

I do get your point.

At the forthcoming FINA World Championships in Kazan it is fully guaranteed that the doping issues will be dealt with correctly and that this Championships will be a great success. We expect to increase the number from Barcelona 2013 of 4.5 billion worldwide tv viewers in Kazan.

Now you refer to the German documentary which I did not see.

We understand that WADA nominated an Independent Commission (see attached) to investigate the allegations of the German documentary. We will know more when we hear the results of this investigation.

RUSADA conducts significant number of doping control tests at the national level and some of them turn out positive. In those cases, the results management is done and decision is taken by RUSADA. If FINA considers that this decision is not in accordance with the rules then FINA can appeal this decision to the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne (SUI).

Nevertheless, I underline again that we consider our collaboration and relations with RUSADA as normal and good.

Yours sincerely,

Cornel Marculescu
FINA Executive Director
