

Food for Thought...For Parents and Swimmers

Nov. 28, 2007

This was posted on the South New Jersey Soccer League website. It certainly gives us food for thought...

A mom was making breakfast of fried eggs for her teenaged son. Suddenly, the boy bursts into the kitchen...

“Careful!! Careful!! Put in some more butter! Oh my goodness! You’re cooking too many at once. TOO MANY! Turn the. TURN THEM NOW! We need more butter. Oh My! WHERE are we going to get MORE BUTTER? They’re going to STICK! Careful...CAREFUL! I said CAREFUL! You NEVER listen to me when you’re cooking! Never! Turn them! Hurry up! Are you crazy! Have you lost your mind? Don’t forget to salt them. You know you always forget to salt them. Use the salt. USE THE SALT! THE SALT!!”

The mom stared at him. “What’s wrong with you? You think I don’t how to fry a couple of eggs?”

The son calmly replied, “I just wanted to show you what it feels like hen I’m trying to play soccer.”
