

We are pleased to announce that at this time we plan to continue our practices at the YMCA until Friday, June 11th and then return to Taylor Park Pool on Monday, June 14th.

We will still have limited practices and we will still be following the guidelines set forth by the Fond du Lac Recreation Department and Health Department.

More information to follow as we count down to summer!